

Pre-Kiddush Blessing for B'nei Mitzvah

As this Shabbat service draws to a close, we are thankful for the Jewish traditions that keep us, as we keep them. We also feel particular gratitude for _____, who has strengthened the links binding us through generations.

_____, we pray that you will continue to be a source of blessing to those who know and love you, and for all creation. May your days be filled with exploration and fulfillment, and may your evenings be shelters of peace.

As you sanctify this sacred day with the kiddush blessing, we pray that the sweetness you taste will reflect the sweetness of the life you live.

Version for Young Children

Before we say kiddush, let's give thanks to God for this happy day! We are thankful for Shabbat and for _____.

_____, we hope you have a happy life filled with lots of blessings, like good health, good deeds, and fun times. Amen.
