CLERGY'S LETTER

When someone experiences a death in their family, the traditional blessing to offer them is zichrono/a livracha; may their memory be a blessing. The yahrzeit candle we light on the anniversary of their death and on major festivals, as well as the lights on the yahrzeit boards in the sanctuary we light at those time, are physical manifestations that affirm that we remember them, and that we see to glean the best of who they were in life to continue to inspire and animate our lives after they are gone.

For many of us, the holidays may be times when we especially think of and miss out loved ones, along with all of the other moments that surprise us throughout the rest of the year. We might be thinking of where they sat in the sanctuary, or how they led the seder or what they cooked for the family festival meals. We remember the way they sang the prayers, the Jewish lessons they taught us, and the way we entertained ourselves as kids playing with the tzitzit on their tallitot during services. We recall our namesakes, and we recall people who we honored by giving their names to our children.

During the holidays, we remember the ways our loved ones valued Judaism and tradition, and the ways they sought to instill those traditions and values of Judaism in us. This year as always, we will say the Yizkor prayers of remembrance in our spiritual home. Our Cantor will chant beautiful and moving psalms, and together we will recite sacred words. We may find ourselves lost, each in our own memories of loved ones who are no longer with us. Some memories will bring us tears of joy, others may bring regrets to mind. Some of our loved ones may have died many years ago; others have lost dear ones since last Yom Kippur; for still others, our wounds are still fresh.

May all those memories inspire us to leave the sanctuary determined to tell our families and friends how much they mean to us while they are still alive. May it bring strength and comfort to you to know that, even as you remember privately, you are a part of a sacred community of people who are remembering, too.

May the memory of our loved ones indeed be a blessing. As we enter the new year, may the lessons they taught us by word and by deed, the values they lived by, and the spiritual inheritances they left behind inspire us to live up to our own highest aspirations. In this way, we can be a blessing while we still walk this earth, and we will be a blessing always to those whose lives we touch.

MEMORIAL READINGS

In Memory of A Father

Your memory, dear father, fills my soul at this solemn hour. It revives in me the thoughts of the love and friendliness that you did bestow upon me. When my pilgrimage on earth is ended and I will arrive at the throne of mercy, may I be worthy of you in the sight of God and humanity. May our merciful God reward you for faithfulness and kindness you showed me. May God grant you eternal peace. Amen.

In Memory of A Mother

I remember you in this solemn hour, my dear mother. I remember the days when you did dwell on earth and your tender love watched over me like a guardian angel. You have gone from me, but the tender bond that unites our souls can never be severed; your image lives in my heart. May God lift up God's countenance upon you and grant you eternal peace. Amen.

In Memory of A Husband

I remember you in this solemn hour, dear companion of my life. I remember the happy days we lived together; I remember your tender affection and self-denial, while hand in hand we trod the path of wedded life, when your love and fidelity were my comfort; and your counsel and aid were my support. Though death has summoned you from my side, your image still lives in my heart, and continues to be an inspiration to me. May the eternal God bless you and keep you. Amen.

In Memory of A Wife

Your memory, dear companion of my life, now fills my soul. It revives in me the thought of love, fidelity, and self-denial that sweetened the days of my life. I treasure it in my heart and strive to become worthy of you. Though death has summoned you from my side, your image still lives within me and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God keep you and give you eternal peace. Amen.

In Memory of A Life Companion

Dear companion of my life, I remember you in this Yizkor hour. I remember your tender affection while hand in hand we followed the path of our united lives, when your love was my comfort and your wise counsel was my support. Your memory revives in me the love which sweetened my life. Though death has summoned you, your image lives and continues to be an inspiration to me. May God keep you in warm embrace and grant you peace eternal. Amen.

In Memory of A Child

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved child. I remember the days when I watched you and fostered beautiful hopes for your future. God has taken you from me, yet in my heart the loving remembrance of you can never die. You have been called into God's presence. God's parental love is my solace, my staff and support. As a parent loves their child, so may God look with compassion upon you and grant you eternal happiness and peace. Amen.

In Memory of A Brother, Sister or Friend

I remember you in this solemn hour, my beloved (brother, sister, or friend). I remember the days when we lived together in happy companionship and your loving friendship was my delight and support. Though you have gone from me, your image abides with me. I think of you with gratitude and bless your memory for all the devotion you showed me. May God bless you with everlasting joy. May you be in God's keeping and may God grant you eternal peace. Amen.

In nature's ebb and flow, Your eternal law abides.

*As You are our support in the struggles of life,
so, also, are You our hope in death.*

In Your care, O God, are the souls of all the living and the spirits of all flesh.

*Your power gives us strength;
Your love comforts us.*

*O life of our life, soul of our soul,
cause Your light to shine into our hearts.*

This listing is as of 9/11/2024. If you have a loved one who you are remembering, whose name is not included in this year's book, please notify us at hhdhelp@tstnyc.org so that we may include it next year.

As we remember all of the loved ones in our families on this Yom Kippur, we also hold in our hearts all of those who were killed in the attacks against Israel on October 7, 2023 and all of those civilians and soldiers who have died since that terrible day. May their memories live as an enduring blessing, and may God console their families along with all those who mourn in Zion and Jerusalem.
